Spring has a way of arriving gently and almost unnoticed. Light lingers longer, bare branches soften with a light green hue, and life returns where it once seemed absent. Scripture reminds us that this rhythm was never accidental. It reflects the heart of a God who delights in renewal.

“For everything there is a season... a time to plant” (Ecclesiastes 3:1–2). God also works patiently, often beneath the surface, bringing life in His time rather than ours. What felt like a forever waiting was never wasted.

The Bible speaks tenderly of this hope: “Those who plant in tears will harvest with shouts of joy” (Psalm 126:5). Spring does not erase the hardship that came before it, but it quietly proves that sorrow does not have the final word.

Even now, God is at work—restoring hearts, renewing strength, and breathing life into places worn thin by the winters of life. “He renews my strength” (Psalm 23:3). That promise is not abstract; it is daily, personal, and near.

As the earth awakens again, may we notice the small signs of grace around us. God is still faithful. New mercies are still rising. And life... true life... continues to grow, even when it begins gently and unnoticed.

In Christ,
Pastor Phil

The Week of Prayer for North American Missions is March 1–8, 2026. This is a special, focused time of prayer for Southern Baptist missionaries serving through the North American Mission Board and the people they serve. An offering was started in 1895 by Woman's Missionary Union® (WMU) to benefit the work of the Home Mission Board (now North American Mission Board). In 1934, it was named in honor of Annie Armstrong, a bold missions advocate and WMU's first national executive leader. Annie was born in Baltimore at a time when there was little opportunity for women. Yet, her devotion to Christ led her to a life of service and leadership. She organized women to pray, to give and to meet the needs around them. She challenged pastors and churches to action and rallied vital support for missionaries. Ultimately, Annie was recognized as a national Southern Baptist trailblazer for her visionary leadership that still inspires millions today. Today, more than $2 billion has been donated by Southern Baptist churches and individuals to support thousands of missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries. Because of this sacrificial giving, millions of lives have been and continue to be transformed by the power of the gospel. West Hampton's offering goal is $5000.
